We'll have a snack break mid-morning. Please make sure your child brings a water bottle and a snack. If your camper has any food allergies, please let us know here:

We, the camp staff, are all volunteers giving our time and talents to make this a great experience for your child. We promise to respect all campers and do our best to make activities fun, challenging, and worthwhile. While we will have loads of fun, for safety and sanity reasons we will also expect campers to respect others and follow directions. Anyone who chooses not to cooperate may be asked to go home early or may not be allowed to complete the week. By signing below you agree to support us and abide by any decisions made regarding participation in camp
